

ALPHA TAU GAMMA

Stockbridge School of Agriculture

Message from President Steven Wayne Spencer '75

Alpha Tau Gamma active chapter students are back in class and the leaves are beginning to turn bright orange, red and yellow in the rolling hills of Pioneer Valley. If you miss “happy valley”, our active chapter boys invite you to the first annual Stockbridge Pumpkin Festival as part of UMass Greek Week Homecoming celebration on Sunday, October 21 from 3-9:30 p.m. at Stockbridge Hall. This is a fundraiser by our boys to support our ATG scholarship fund. If you cannot make the event in person, donations will be accepted online at www.alphataugamma.org.

Out ATG, Inc. officers and directors have had many requests to have some of our corporate meetings closer to Boston. So guys, now is your chance to join us on Saturday, October 20 at 8:00 a.m. for the ATG, Inc. annual corporation meeting at the North Walpole Fish & Game Club, 400 Brook Street, Walpole, MA 02081. Enter from Fisher Street. As usual we will be holding elections and having lively discussions on a variety of topics.

If you are a football fan (or not) following the meeting some of our alumni will be sponsoring a tailgating event in the parking lot adjacent to Gillette Stadium prior to the UMass football game. Join your brothers following the hot dogs and burgers for an afternoon of gridiron action as our Minutemen take on Bowling Green at Noon.

Your officers and directors work hard to sponsor social events such as Red Sox, Boston Pops, Killington Ski Trips, Tanglewood, Plymouth Harbor Cruise, Pledge Formal and Graduation Party. Watch for big changes & upcoming events on our web site at www.alphataugamma.org.

YOU, our brothers are the reason we sponsor these events and we need YOU, our brothers, wives, girlfriends, families, friends to come and have fun. Please come share some stories of the good olde days and be sure to let us know if you have an idea for an event we can all enjoy.

Fraternally,
Steve Spencer '75
President ATG, Inc.
